So Maura,

you are the dearest, the sweetest,
the loveliest person.

I'll never forget the good times we had. especially around the fashion show. You are a easy person to talk to and you listen well. I remember when you tried to help me to get back with Vincent, I'll always admire you. I know you don't have a best friend now so I would like to be your best friend if you want me to. I so happy you made it out of here.
and I wish you the best of health and success in the future. Please don't forget me.
Cause I'll never forget you and the wonderful time we had.

Good Luck!

I am going to miss you Take care.

Just in case you forget

Class of 1980

We've only just begun . . .

We are the Class of 1980. We are a group of individuals who have grown, laughed, cried, and, endured together. We are Seniors, ready to lift our eyes and look to the future.

The excitement of coming to high school was somewhat overshadowed by the fact that by the time we got to school, the upperclassmen were eating lunch. The year 1977 was the year of the Austerity Budget. This, along with the fact that we were from two different Junior Highs', made it difficult to bring much unity or spirit to the Freshman Class. As the year progressed, a developing friendship became noticeable. The selling of plants on St. Patrick's Day, and several bake sales throughout the year, also, helped us along. Our common fate of the new wing "dungeon" and being linked to the real world — the upperclassmen — by one single staircase, were major factors in drawing us closer together.

Our Sophomore year was different from Sophomores of years gone by. There were no Freshmen, we were again the youngest students in R.C.K., and, again, spent much of our time in the "dungeon".

In the Fall we elected our class officers. We had our first fund raiser — the sale of Gem All-Purpose Cleaner. Besides being our first attempt at class teamwork, it gave our treasury the initial boost it needed.

The Magazine Drive was our first major class effort, and a great success. Gimmicks like a seven foot stuffed monkey, Class of '80 frisbees, and, Dream Pets offered the initiative needed to increase our bank account.

Continuing the Sophomore tradition, we helped serve at the Junior Prom. The Spring also brought about the designing of our class ring.

By the time Graduation came, we noticed that we had found the sense of unity we had missed the year before. We had not only grown together as a class, but also as a school. Our Senior buddies who had been with us for the first two years at Ketcham were ready to face the challenge of life beyond the doors of Ketcham High — and we were ready to become Juniors.

In the fall of 1978, we gained a sense of accomplishment. We gladly gave up our position of the lowest Indians on the R.C.K. totem pole, and moved into the real world of upper-underclassmanship.

We began our Junior year with the Basketball Concession Stand. After what seemed endless Friday nights, we realized a profit of $250. The better part of the year was spent planning the Junior Prom. We intended to capitalize upon the preceeding prom's successes and failures to best benefit our evening. We planned a buffet dinner and a total transformation of the gymnasium.

Our prom, "There We Are", held on March 31, 1979, was an evening of pure magic. With few complications, it was a beautifully successful venture. We ended our Junior year with the prospect that when we returned in the fall, we would be Seniors. Only a summer away, it seemed so close, yet so far.

The election of our Senior Class officers was a great surprise. The greatest number of candidates during our four years resulted in a complete overturn. This left us at a small disadvantage, since only one officer had held an office in the past and Homecoming was less than a month away. With so much to do, a quick decision was made to incorporate our class ring design into the float design. The result was vibrant, but more than that, meaningful to the spirit of our class. The selling of carnations at the end of Spirit Week, and, on Halloween increased our bank account by an impressive sum. The weeks of intense planning had come to an end. Blistered fingers, and long hours spent after school were over. The float was ready, and the crowning of the Queen was only hours away. Black Powder Whiskey played at the Second Annual Homecoming Dance. This was our first disappointment of the year, but would not keep us from trying again.

"Don't Drink The Water", a comedy by Woody Allen, was chosen as our Senior Play. In itself, it was fabulous — the actors and actresses were convincing, and very funny. The comedy was superb, and the audience was extremely receptive. The play was the first non-musical done by Seniors in years. Despite the forecasts of impending doom, we presented two spectacular performances, and had many requests for a third.

Our plans for further activities were always growing. January 19th brought "Horror Movies" to Roy C. Ketcham. On St. Valentine's Day, we ran the Valentine-O-Gram Service. Two days later, we hosted Aura at the Valentine's Day Dance. The Senior Faculty game was held on March 7th. Before the Senior Guys challenged the Men Faculty, the Senior Girls played against the Women Faculty in "Almost Anything Goes Game." Our Senior Prom took place on May 30 at Meadowbrook Lodge — an evening we will long remember.

On June 22, 1980, we, as a class, walked across the football field into a new decade and life full of decisions and experiences. We will take with us the memories of times shared together as the last four year graduating class of Roy C. Ketcham Senior High School.

. . . to live. White lace and promises. A kiss for luck and we're on the way . . . We've only just begun. Before the rising sun — we fly. So many roads to choose . . . we start out walking and learn to run . . . and yet we've just begun . . .

I have learned that success is to be measured not so much by the position that one has reached in life as by the obstacles which one has overcome while trying to succeed.

A Very Special Thanks to Mr. Conforti

We, the Staff of Portico 1980, dedicate this book to you, Mr. Conforti, for all your years of patience, dedication, concern and interest, whenever and wherever the need arose.

Mr. Conforti, you began your years at RCK in 1963. You have taught business education courses and for the past seven years have been the Work-Study Coordinator. We are glad that you became a teacher, so that we could benefit from your expertise and experience.

The Staff of Portico 1980 greatly appreciates all of your help and guidance in producing this yearbook. We thank you and wish you the very best in the years to come!

"Time is not measured by the years that you live, but, by the deeds that you do, and the joy that you give . . ."

(Helen Steiner Rice)

Portico Staff

Dare to be happy, don't shy away Reach out and capture the joys of today Life is worth living, so give it a try Open your heart to that sun in the sky

Dare to be loving, trusting and true Treasure the hours with those dear to you Dare to be kind, it's more fun than you know Give joy to others and watch your own grow

*Dare to admit all your blessings and then Everyday count them all over again Dare to be happy, don't be afraid
This is the day which the Lord hath made
This is the day which the Lord hath made*

Moment To Share

*Many roads we have traveled Many miles we have come To share in the magic of these days
Won't you come and sit beside me
Join in my thoughts
For soon we must go our separate ways*

*And we sit and we talk
We laugh and we smile
We understand all that friendship means For we know that we've only A moment to share
A moment to realize our dreams*

*We've known days warmed by sunshine Nights filled with stars
The coolness of the falling rain
And together we have worked Together we have grown Together we've felt happiness and pain*

*We have found something special To give meaning to our lives
A treasure that is known by very few
For while sharing this last moment
We have found a special love
One that will last our whole lives through*

Mama,
I didn't really get to know you this year and I'm sorry that I didn't. How a successful future and don't forget to get high once in a while - it's good for your soul!

God bless you and have a great summer.

Maura,

It would be dumb for me to say "it's been nice knowing you, How a nice summer, good luck in the future" Because I didn't just meet you - yours is a time tested friendship - one I'll always treasure Of course I'll miss you next year - But it's time for Bigger & Better things - I know you know I wish you nothing but the Best in Life & Love - God know you deserve the Best life can bring

Love & Friendship
always

Moved, I Listen even though you & I really never got along that well
It doesn't mean that I hate you! Have a very nice summer,
don't work too hard!

Love ya
